

SOCCER SCENE

ALL MATCHES CANCELLED

ALL local games were cancelled last Saturday because of the snow. Muirend will now play their Scottish Cup Fifth Round replay against Neilsonians on Saturday at Lochninch, kick-off 1.45 p.m. Transport for supporters will leave the Toledo at 1 p.m. Saturday's fixtures — Strathclyde v Eaglesham; Noire Dame v Mearns; Muirend v Neilsonians; Giffnock North v Netherlee; Weirs v Whitecraigs; to the area where he made so many friends during the three-and-a-half years he spent as clubmaster at Douglas; Eastbank v Eastwood; Crookfur v Gairlochhead.

PROTEST

BUSBY B.C. have lodged a protest against Scotstoun Y.C. for playing unregistered players when they beat Busby by four goals to one at Busby on February 10. The protest will be considered by the Glasgow Boys' League Management Committee at their next meeting. The Club's game against Cambuslang Santos last Saturday was postponed owing to the pitch being covered with snow.

Their son, Stuart, is quitting his job in the cocktail lounge at Prestwick Airport and will be coming up soon to Cathcart Castle to assist until his mother and father can

GOLF

A COUPLE well known in the district will be returning soon to take over the stewardship of Cathcart Castle Golf Club.

Mr Bob Carlyle and his wife Chrissie, who are at present at the Kilmarnock Golf Club at Barassie, have been chosen to fill the tress posts left vacant by the death of Mr Dall. Mr Carlyle told me on Tuesday that he had received written confirmation from Cathcart Castle and that he was very pleased to be coming back to the area where he made so many friends during the three-and-a-half years he spent as clubmaster at

MR AND MRS CARLISLE ACCEPT CATHCART CASTLE POST

As in last year's Coca-Cola, points are awarded for the Scottish Order of Merit Table and it is expected that nearly 100 professionals from Scotland will take part. This is the fourth year that Whitecraigs has been the venue of the tournament, which is now in its seventh year.

The Coca-Cola Invitation soon find a niche. line Stuart will, no doubt, competent people in this thousands of vacancies for of work and as there are keen to remain in this line parents arrive. He is very job in the area once his for an assistant steward's Stuart will be looking leave.

ments for them before they the club to find and replace- Golf Club at Barassie, have been chosen to fill the tress posts left vacant by the death of Mr Dall. Mr Carlyle told me on Tuesday that he had received written confirmation from Cathcart Castle and that he was very pleased to be coming back to the area where he made so many friends during the three-and-a-half years he spent as clubmaster at Douglas; Eastbank v Eastwood; Crookfur v Gairlochhead.

E.W.

Dr Stewart in action

27 HOURS NON STOP

MEMBERS of Greenbank Boys' Brigade Company and 10 p.m. on Saturday. Milk. chocolate and other items of food were week when they participated in a sponsored Badminton and Table Tennis 27-hour marathon. Reverend Dr Angus T. Stewart started the proceedings promptly at 7 p.m. on Friday evening at the table-tennis table and party would like to thank, not known, but the Com- As yet the final result is two games between then

All set for a day at the Bear Park are Cubs of the 28th G

